1. Introduction

Welcome to Sutton's Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB) Learning and Development (L&D) programme which has been designed to respond to the policy and practice priorities in the LSCB Business Plan 2018-19. The programme includes courses to address learning arising from national policy and practice developments, Serious Case Reviews (SCR) and other learning reviews and quality assurance activities.

The programme is endorsed by the LSCB Learning and Development Group and reflects the strong commitment to the Competence Still Matters standards framework, which has been adopted by the London Safeguarding Board. The framework provides guidance for the children's workforce to work out what child safeguarding training is required for different roles and levels of responsibility. Section 11 under the Children Act 2004 sets out employer responsibilities to ensure that staff are knowledgeable and skilled to work with children and families in a broad range of settings.

The training programme covers courses that are available for free to all staff and volunteers who have a role in safeguarding children and families in the London Borough of Sutton. It includes awareness raising training based on the principle that safeguarding children is everyone's business and this year we are rolling out e-learning modules as a complement to undertaking class room based learning.

Some courses are still under development or in the process of being reviewed and details will be available on the online booking system as soon as the details are available.

We hope that you will find that the training programme meets your individual training needs and do let us know about any additional training requirements that you would want to be included in the LSCB Learning and Development programme.

4. Professional Competence Requirements

'Working Together to Safeguard Children' 2015, Chapter 3, continues to enforce the functions of LSCBs under Regulation 5 1(a)(ii) in relation to:

- the training of persons who work with children or in services affecting the safety and welfare of children (pg59)
- the monitoring and evaluation of the effectiveness of training, including multi-agency training, to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. (Chapter 3.2, pg. 60).

However, in the absence of any further Government guidance on training, the London Safeguarding Children Board adopted Competence Still Matters 2015¹ in respect of the training and development of staff and volunteers across London, with the view to enable them to effectively safeguard and promote the welfare of children.

Competence Still Matters groups audiences together based on their degree of contact with children and/or parents/carers and their levels of responsibility. The table below provides a useful overview of the eight groups within the professional standards framework.

COMPETENCE MATTERS TARGET GROUPS
Group	Role Function
Group 1	Staff in infrequent contact with children, young people and/or parents/carers who may become aware of possible abuse or neglect. For example, librarians, GP receptionists, community advice centre staff, grounds men, recreation assistants, environmental health officers.

Group 2	Those in regular contact or have a period of intense but irregular contact, with children, young people and/or parents/carers including all health clinical staff, who may be in a position to identify concerns about maltreatment, including those that may arise from the use of EHAP. For example, housing, hospital staff, Youth Offending Team staff and staff in secure settings, the police other than those in specialist child protection roles, sports development officers, disability specialists, faith groups, community youth groups, play scheme volunteers.
Group 3	Members of the workforce who work predominantly with children, young people and/or their parents/carers and who could potentially contribute to assessing planning, intervening and reviewing the needs of a child and parenting capacity where there are safeguarding concerns. For example, paediatricians, GPs, youth workers, those working in the early years sector, residential staff, midwives, school nurses, health visitors, sexual health staff, teachers, probation staff, sports club welfare officers, those working with adults in, for example, learning disability, mental health, alcohol and drug misuse services, those working in community play schemes.
Group 4	Members of the workforce who have particular responsibilities in relation to undertaking section 47 enquiries, including professionals from health, education, police and children's social care; those who work with complex cases and social work staff responsible for co-ordinating assessments of children in need.
Group 5	Professional advisors, named and designated lead professionals.
Group 6	Operational managers at all levels including: practice supervisors; front line managers and managers of child protection units.
Group 7	Senior managers responsible for the strategic management of services; NHS board members.
Group 8	Members of the LSCB including: board members; independent chairs; directors of children's services; elected members; lay members; members of executive and sub/task groups; business support team; inter-agency trainers.

The table below and course specifications set out the target group at the above levels; all courses are suitable to those at above level 3; and above level of 3 of the Inter Collegiate professional standards framework for Health Professionals².
